Earn your crust! 18th August 2007

The Connemara Breakfast Run is a fundraising race for under-age athletics in Co. Galway.

The stunning 4.2 mile race route passes through the heart of Connemara. Starting from the village of Maum and travelling along the Maum Valley to Maam Cross this race is a fantastic way to kick start your Saturday. After the running or walking is done you'll be treated to a superb breakfast in the beautiful Connemara Gateway Hotel.

For logistical reasons entry will be restricted to the first 200 runners or walkers, so make sure you sign up early. No entries will be accepted on the day. The entry fee, which includes your race number, bus transfers from registration in Oughterard, and of course your breakfast afterwards is only €35.00.
